

2022 Peter MacCallum Cancer Centre and Austin Health Perioperative Medicine symposium

26-29 August 2022
RACV City Club, Melbourne

#PMAH22

Platinum
sponsor

Saturday 27 August

2022 Peter MacCallum Cancer Centre and Austin Health Perioperative Medicine Symposium
RACV Club, Melbourne
(This is an in-person meeting)

Program

7.15-7.45am	Registration and coffee
7.45-8am	Welcome from the convenors and acknowledgement of the traditional custodians	Professor Laurence Weinberg and Professor Bernhard Riedel
Session one	Preoperative optimisation	Chair: Dr Louise Ellard
8-8.20am	Delivering the value proposition in the perioperative setting	Professor Christobel Saunders, AO
8.20-8.40am	Prehabilitation: An institutional experience and what is the evidence?	Dr Hilmy Ismail
8.40-9am	Haematinic optimisation: Where to next?	Associate Professor Lachlan Miles
9-9.20am	Pharmacogenomics: A primer for the practicing perioperative clinician	Professor Andrew Somogyi
9.20-9.40am	Panel discussion
9.40-10.15am	Morning tea and coffee
Session two	Organ systems: An update	Chair: Associate Professor Lachlan Miles
10.15-10.35am	Airway management: An update	Dr Louise Ellard
10.35-10.55am	Cardiac: Preoperative optimisation and postoperative management of MINS	Dr Mark Nolan
10.55-11.15am	Microcirculation: The evidence for protective strategies	Professor Laurence Weinberg
11.15-11.35am	Immune system: Perioperative suppression and metastases	Professor Rebecca Auer, Canada (Virtual)
11.35-11.55am	Panel discussion
11.55am-12.35pm	KEYNOTE: Leading change in perioperative medicine: The role of ANZCA and the practicing clinician	Dr Vanessa Beavis

2022 Peter MacCallum Cancer Centre and Austin Health Perioperative Medicine symposium

26-29 August 2022
RACV City Club, Melbourne

#PMAH22

Platinum sponsor

Saturday 27 August

2022 Peter MacCallum Cancer Centre and Austin Health Perioperative Medicine Symposium
RACV Club, Melbourne
(This is an in-person meeting)

Program

12.35-1.30pm	Lunch
Session three	Opioids: A necessary evil?	Chair: Dr Michelle Gerstman
1.30-1.50pm	Pharmacogenomics: A case study in opioids	Professor Andrew Somogyi
1.50-2.10pm	Neuraxial and abdominal surgery – Opioid-sparing strategies	Dr Katrina Pirie
2.10-2.30pm	Managing the postoperative patient with chronic pain	Dr Nick Christelis
2.30-2.50pm	Perioperative opioid stewardship	Dr Megan Allen
2.50-3.10pm	Panel discussion
3.10-3.40pm	Afternoon tea and coffee
3.40-4.20pm	KEYNOTE: Precision medicine: Individualizing perioperative treatment with population and bench level data	Professor Ismail Gogenür (Denmark)
Session four	Cancer surgery	Chair: Dr Julia Dubowitz
4.20-4.40pm	What can lymph nodes tell us about a patient's response to cancer	Associate Professor David Gyorki
4.40-5pm	The immunotherapy era: Understanding surgeons' role in driving new treatments	Professor Ismail Gogenür (Denmark)
5-5.20pm	Cancer survivorship and psychology	Professor Suzanne Chambers, AO (virtual)
5.20-5.40pm	Socioeconomic inequality and the social determinants of perioperative health	Dr Elliot Wollner
5.40-6pm	Panel discussion
6pm	Wrap-up	Professor Bernhard Riedel and Professor Laurence Weinberg
6.15-7.30pm	Cocktail reception	